

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

Travis Glenn,

Plaintiff,

v.

Trident Seafood Company,

Defendant.

CASE NO. C20-1583 MJP

ORDER SETTING STATUS
CONFERENCE ON PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR RELIEF

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's motion for relief regarding the costs of deposition transcripts in connection with his pending motion for summary judgment. (Dkt. No. 60.) The Court also notes Defendant's response. (Dkt. No. 61.) The parties are directed to appear at a status conference by phone, to be arranged by the courtroom deputy, to discuss the motion. Before the conference, Plaintiff is encouraged to contact his former attorney, Allen Robert McKenzie, of Kram & Wooster, P.S., and request copies of all deposition transcripts in his possession.

At or before the conference, the parties shall inform the Court of the following:

- Identify all parties and witnesses for which depositions were taken;

- Identify which deposition transcripts were ordered;
- Clarify whether Plaintiff's former attorney, Allen Robert McKenzie, of Kram & Wooster, P.S., has any deposition transcripts in his possession, and whether Plaintiff has requested those transcripts from him;
- Identify which deposition transcripts Plaintiff needs to prepare his reply for his motion for summary judgment; and
- Clarify whether Plaintiff needs more time for his reply and, if so, how much more time.

The clerk is ordered to provide copies of this order to Plaintiff and all counsel.

Dated March 25, 2022.

Marsha J. Pechman
United States Senior District Judge
